3. Outlook

- The evolution in attendance of the major fall trade shows and fairs confirms European's interest in motorhomes. Trigano will continue to offer increasingly attractive and accessible motorhomes to consolidate its positive market share momentum and remain on a growth track.
- After a season marked by a sharp contraction in investments by campsite managers in France, the mobile home market is expected to grow by around 5% to 10% during the 2026 season.
- Thanks to the solid increase in the order book and the absence of destocking operations, Trigano expects a clear improvement in business and results for the coming fiscal year.
- In first-half 2026, Trigano will gradually increase production to align closely with distributors' business cycles.
